INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of A Leg To Stand On, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of A Leg To Stand On, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2022, and the related statements of activities functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of A Leg To Stand On, Inc. as of December 31, 2022, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of A Leg To Stand On, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about A Leg To Stand On Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of A Leg To Stand On Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about A Leg To Stand On Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF ORGANIZATION, TAX AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

A Leg to Stand On ("ALTSO" or "the Organization") was incorporated on April 23, 2002 in the State of New York and is committed to helping transform the lives of children with limb disabilities in developing countries by offering them the physical capabilities and self-esteem required to access education, work, and other community opportunities. ALTSO works in partnership with the local communities. ALTSO transforms the lives of disabled children through the use of corrective surgery and the provision of prosthetic limbs.

Financial Statement Presentation

ALTSO's policy is to prepare financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Financial statement presentation follows the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 958 (FASB ASC 958). Under FASB ASC 958 (ASU No. 2016-14), The Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets, as applicable: net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions. The classification of net assets and related support, revenue and expenses are based on the presence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

These classifications are defined as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations and are available for the general operations of the Organization. All contributions are considered to be available for use without restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor. Restricted contributions whose restrictions are met within the same fiscal year are reported as contributions without donor restrictions. Similarly, gains and investment income that are limited to specific uses by donor-imposed restrictions are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the same reporting period as the gains and income are recognized. Contributions are recorded at their fair value on the date of receipt.

Net assets with donor restrictions - Net assets which are subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will either be met by actions of the Organization, by the passage of time, by both actions of the Organization and the passage of time, or that neither expires with the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or removed by actions of the Organization. Amounts received that are restricted by the donor for use in future periods or for specific purposes are recorded as support with donor restrictions that increase that net asset class. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. As of December 31, 2022 there were no net assets with donor restrictions.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs for providing various programs and activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services that benefited.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses recognized during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The most sensitive estimates affecting the financial statements were allocation of expenses among the functional classifications.

Income Tax Status

In December 2002, ALTSO received approval to be treated as a nonprofit organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore is exempt from federal income taxes on related income. As such, no provisions for income taxes have been made in the financial statements.

ALTSO had no uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2022 in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, "Income Taxes," which provides standards for establishing and classifying any tax provisions for uncertain tax positions. The Organization's Federal and New York State exempt organization returns are subject to examination by the appropriate jurisdictions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

ALTSO considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Receivables

Receivables are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. ALTSO considers receivables past due or delinquent when payments have not been received in a timely manner, and receivables are written off when management deems the possibility of collecting amounts due as completely unlikely. ALTSO closely monitors outstanding balances for all receivables and adheres to a standard set of protocols for collection activities to be undertaken at certain times based upon delinquency status. As of December 31, 2022, management considers all receivables to be collectable. As such, an allowance for doubtful accounts has not been established.

Investments and Fair Value Measurements

ALTSO's investments are reported at fair value in the accompanying statement of financial position. The methods used to measure fair value may produce an amount that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Organization believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The fair value measurements accounting literature establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs are unobservable and have the lowest priority. ALTSO uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, ALTSO measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2022.

The fair value measurements and levels within the fair value hierarchy of those measurements for the assets reported at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2022, are as follows:

Description	Fair Value	Level 1
Common stocks	$12,245	$12,245
Total	$12,245	$12,245

ALTSO’s investment return for the year ended December 31, 2022, consisted of:

Net appreciation/(depreciation) in fair value of investments	$(2,767)
Dividend income	295
Interest income	116
Total	$(2,356)

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are recorded at cost for financial reporting purposes and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated economic useful lives of the assets. These amounts do not purport to represent replacement or net realizable values. ALTSO has a policy to capitalize all purchases of furniture and equipment of $1,000 and above.

Planned maintenance activities are accounted for under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Repairs and maintenance are expensed when incurred, while renewals and betterments are capitalized. When furniture and equipment are retired, sold or otherwise disposed, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed, and any gain or loss is recognized.

Donated Materials and Services

Donated materials and services are reflected as in-kind support in the accompanying statement of activities at their estimated values at the date of receipt. Donated services of specialized skill that would be purchased in the absence of this donation are recorded at the estimated market rate for the corresponding hours spent.

New Accounting Pronouncements: ASU No. 2014-09

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU NO. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). This ASU is the result of a joint project of the FASB and the IASB to clarify the principles for recognizing revenue and to develop a common revenue standard for U.S. GAAP and IFRS. The guidance in this ASU affects any entity that either enters into contracts with customers to transfer goods or services or enters into contracts for the transfer of nonfinancial assets unless those contracts are within the scope of other standards.

The ASU provides that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. An entity should apply the following five-step process to recognize revenue:

Step 1: Identify the contract with a customer.

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract.

Step 3: Determine the transaction price.

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.

Step 5: Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

For nonpublic entities, due to COVID-19 pandemic, the FASB voted to extend the effective dates for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020 and interim reporting periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020. A Leg To Stand On, Inc. adopted the ASU No. 2014-09 in previous year and there has been no material impact.

Contributions

All contributions are considered to be available for use without restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are restricted by the donor for use in future periods or for specific purposes are recorded as support with donor restrictions that increases that net asset class. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Restricted contributions whose restrictions are met within the same fiscal year are reported as contributions without donor restrictions. Similarly, gains and investment income that are limited to specific uses by donor-imposed restrictions are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the same reporting period as the gains and income are recognized. Contributions are recorded at their fair value on the date of receipt. Unconditional promises to contribute are recorded at the fair value of the property to be contributed on the date the promise is made.

NOTE 4: LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

Cash and cash equivalents	$474,197
Accounts receivable	76,417

Total	$562,859

Liquidity is managed based upon actual results of previous years, as well as forecasts of spending through the end of the fiscal year. Fundraising activities, which have historically generated a predictable return, are planned and scheduled accordingly. With an annual budget below $1,000,000 and monthly expenses less than $100,000, the Organization meets its liquidity needs for operational costs through regular unrestricted and operational grants, especially individual donations. The majority of grants and donations, as well as expenditures, have been operational, enabling the Organization to match expenditures against corresponding funding. Expenses are not incurred against grants and donations with donor restrictions until the corresponding funding has been received.
